Seeking Your Input

Dear Neighbor,

For the last few years we have faced extremely challenging economic times as a nation and as a state. Connecticut's families have had to tighten their belts as they worry about job security and making ends meet.

The next couple of years will not be any easier, as the state faces a projected $3.7 billion dollar deficit for Fiscal Year 2011-2012. Shared sacrifices will be necessary to weather this economic storm. As your new State Senator, I am committed to working diligently to ensure that our budget is balanced and that we are well-positioned for a successful economic recovery.

As I begin my service in the Senate, it is extremely important that I hear from you. I want to know what issues are most important to you, and I welcome any specific ideas you may have for ways to reduce the budget deficit and increase efficiency in our state. Please detach the card to the right and return it to my office so we can continue to keep a dialogue going.

Sincerely,

Steve Cassano
State Senator
